COTTAGE COUNTRY COMBAT LEAGUE

BRAND KIT

Colours, fonts, logo and sizes for every CCCL poster and post. For Canva and anyone making CCCL graphics.

LOGO

Files: Brand/CCCL logo.png (with white corners) and Brand/CCCL logo (transparent).png (round, for dark backgrounds and Canva).

- Keep it round and whole: no cropping, stretching or recolouring.
- Put it on near-black or forest green, or on cream with space around it.
- Leave clear space around it of at least a quarter of its width.
- Sponsor logos never sit on top of it.

COLOURS (FROM THE LOGO)

NEAR-BLACK #151C19 · backgrounds	FOREST GREEN #354940 · panels	DARK GREEN #26362F · cards, trees
CREAM #F2ECDC · text on dark	BRIGHT RED #D9483B · big words on dark	MAPLE RED #AE2221 · small accents

Red is for the one big thing to notice (the town, "VS", "fighting") and small labels. Everything else is cream on dark.

FONTS (ALL FREE IN CANVA)

FONT	USE	LOOKS LIKE
Anton	Headlines: town, FIGHT NIGHT, names on the card	HALIBURTON
Oswald (SemiBold)	Dates, venues, labels, fighter details	SAT MAY 1 · DOORS 6 PM
Inter	Small print: prices, sponsors, quotes	General admission $60 · VIP $100

SIZES

FORMAT	SIZE	RATIO
Instagram + Facebook feed post (use this)	1080 × 1350	4:5
Instagram 3:4 post (keep text off the top and bottom edges)	1080 × 1440	3:4
Stories and Reels (text inside the middle 1080 × 1610)	1080 × 1920	9:16
Facebook event cover (title and date in the middle)	1920 × 1005	≈1.91:1
Facebook link / landscape	1200 × 628	1.91:1
Poster	11 × 17 in (also letter)

THE LOOK

- Dark background, tall all-caps headline, the town in red, a thin red line, then date and venue in Oswald.
- Layered mountains and pines along the bottom with a soft red glow, like the logo at night.
- The round logo top right (or centred on stories). A thin footer band for the date or "Tickets: link in bio".
- Real photos of real fighters beat any graphic: bright, close, sharp.

THE STARTER DESIGNS

16 designs in CCCL/Marketing/Canva starter designs, each as a PNG (to look at) and a PDF (to import into Canva). Page 3 shows them all and when to use each.

USING THEM IN CANVA

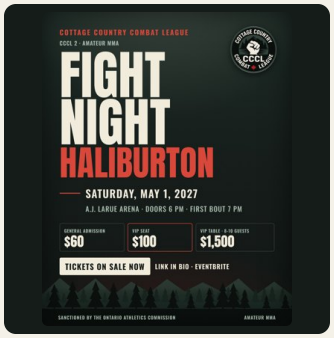

1. In Canva, click Create a design, then Import file, and pick a starter design PDF from the Canva starter designs folder. Every word comes in as its own text box you can edit.
2. The background (dark gradient, pines, red glow) is one image. Click it and Lock it so it doesn't move while you work.
3. Check the fonts: if Canva swapped one, select the text and choose Anton (headlines), Oswald (names and dates) or Inter (small text). All three are free in Canva.
4. Replace the sample text. For photos: delete the grey photo box, then drag a Frame (Elements > Frames) to the same spot and drop the photo into it, so it crops neatly.
5. Add the QR code (Apps > QR code) with that source's tracking link. On stories, add the Instagram link sticker when posting.
6. Keep a copy of each finished design and change the town, date and names for the next show.
7. Free Canva is enough. Canva Pro (about $142 CAD a year) adds a full Brand Kit with every CCCL colour, saved brand templates and one-click resizing. Canva's connector for Claude works on free Canva.

RULES

- Real numbers only: 400 tickets and 15 sponsors at the first show are real. No invented crowd or viewer numbers.
- Fighters: adults who agreed, official results only, respect for every fighter.
- Kids: never in ads, never named in press, photos only with a parent's written OK.
- Sponsors: logos sized by their level, only what their package includes. No alcohol logos on anything youth-facing.
- Every poster and post links to its own Eventbrite tracking link (Marketing Kit, Ticket Sources tab).

THE 16 STARTER DESIGNS

Sample text (Haliburton, May 1, fighter names) is there to replace. Fighters get 11, 12 and 14 with their own tracking link; sponsors get 15.
